The unique martial art concepts, triangular fighting method, speed, vast knowledge and skills of Professor Roberto Torres are well known around the world. He brings you over 40 years of experience. Come train with the man who brought you the first kuntao videos, facilitated Filipino & Indonesian martial arts in America.

Regardless of your current style of martial arts, come train with other martial artists. Learn concepts and techniques that will sharpen and enhance what you already know and add to your repertoire. You will see things you never saw before, gain a new perspective on mindset, body mechanics, and what you thought you already knew about your martial art.
